

2010 Young-Baker Scholarships:

The Arkansas Cattlemen's Foundation, Inc. has announced plans to award the 2010 Young-Baker Scholarships.

To qualify for an award, applicants must be attending a college or university at the present time and should be ENTERING THEIR JUNIOR OR SENIOR YEAR in the fall of 2010.

APPLICANTS MUST:

- FILL OUT REQUIRED APPLICATION FORMS
- BE AN ARKANSAS RESIDENT
- HAVE A COLLEGE GRADE POINT AVERAGE OF 2.5 BASED ON A 4.0 SCALE
- BE PLANNING A CAREER IN OR RELATED TO THE CATTLE INDUSTRY

Five scholarships will be awarded on the basis of academic achievement, individual character, career plans and leadership potential. Preference may be given to children and grandchildren of Arkansas Cattlemen's Association members. The recipient will be notified in writing and payment will be made directly to the college the student is attending. The $2,000 scholarship will be awarded in two installments of $1,000 per semester.

Howard Young and Frank Baker were instrumental in establishing the Arkansas Cattlemen's Foundation, Inc. and securing a home for the Arkansas Cattlemen's Association and a learning center for the youth of Arkansas. Young, as Executive Vice president of the ACA, provided the roots for continued growth of the association. the late Dr. Baker provided professional input which helped create the Arkansas Cattlemen's Foundation Learning and Heritage Center. Both Young and Baker worked closely together for the benefit of Arkansas Cattlemen.

For an application, call the Arkansas Cattlemen's Association office at 501-224-2114 or visit www.arbeef.org to download a copy of the application. Applications should be submitted to the ACA Office at: 310 Executive Court; Little Rock, AR 72205. The application deadline is June 1, 2010.

